For Your Information:

Brand new books at Burnaby Public Library are often quite popular. Once in a while this may mean you will have to wait for others to finish with the book before we can bring it to you. Requests are always filled in the order in which they were received. Once you have requested a book there is no need to request it again, we will make sure you get the book when it is your turn.

Renewals:

If there are no requests waiting, Burnaby Public Library materials may be renewed a maximum of two times.

If you would like to renew a book, you can either let us know on our visit day or you can call the Home Library & Accessible Service at 604-436-5423 and we will see if it can be renewed.

Requests:

Requests are always welcome so please don't hesitate to ask us about any book you are looking for, even if it's not on this list. If you can only remember part of the information, such as the title, we can always try our best with the information you have given us. Even if Burnaby Public Library does not own a copy of the book you are looking for, we can often borrow it from another library for you. It doesn't hurt to ask!
