Being Brave

Two little bluebirds sitting on a hill.
One named Jack, the other named Jill.
Fly away Jack, fly away Jill.
Come back Jack, come back Jill.

One, two, three little kittens
sleeping in the sun
One, two, three little puppies who thought they’d have some fun Creeping, up to the kittens, as quietly as can be “Ruff! Ruff! Ruff!” and the three little kittens went scrambling up a tree

Send the three surprised kittens running up onto your head.

Once a quiet little mouse
Lived in a quiet little house
When all was quiet as can be OUT popped she!

Hide your little mouse finger behind or under the “house”
made by the other hand.
Then POP her out!

“Quack, quack, quack”

Lions are very brave!

Hickory dickory dock,
The mouse ran up the clock.
The clock struck one,
The mouse ran down,
Hickory dickory dock!

Two - And down she flew
Three - The mouse said, “Wee”
Four - The mouse said, “No more”

Let your finger mouse run up your arm to your head.
Touch your nose with your finger
to “Bong!” the clock counts.
Then run the mouse back down your arm.

Five little ducks went swimming one day,
Across the pond and far away.
When mother duck said, “Quack, quack, quack,”
Four little ducks came swimming back...
(repeat until none come back)

So mother duck went swimming one day,
Across the pond and far away.
When mother duck said, “Quack, quack, quack,”
All five little ducks came swimming back.

You can use plain fingers or finger puppets on one hand for the five ducks. Try starting with the thumb first, followed by the little finger, when you’re making the ducks disappear. The thumb can help hold the rest of the “disappearing” ducks down. Your other hand can “quack” to imitate the mother (or father) duck’s big beak.
